Homer Higbee International Education Award

Nomination Solicitation

The Homer Higbee International Education Award Fund was established to honor the memory of Homer Higbee, who dedicated his professional life to international education exchange during the 25 years that he served in the Office of International Studies and Programs at Michigan State University.

The Homer Higbee International Education Award is designed to recognize full time and degree seeking MSU students at the undergraduate and graduate level who demonstrate the characteristics Homer Higbee represented. These include making significant contributions to the support of international awareness at Michigan State University through involvement in programs that promote cross-cultural understanding on campus and in the community. The recipients will receive a cash award however; financial need is not a criterion for this award.

The completed nomination form should be submitted with:

- » A letter of nomination from MSU faculty or staff or members of the Greater Lansing or Michigan community who are familiar with the contributions of the nominee. The nominator(s) should briefly describe the nominee's contributions to international communication, understanding, and cooperation. Give specific examples of how this student meets the award criteria including the setting, duration and impact of the candidate's service and activities.
- » The nominee's resume
- » The nominee's personal statement
