

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES AND PROGRAMS, MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

2008 HOMER HIGBEE INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION AWARD

NOMINATIONS SOLICITATION

The Homer Higbee International Education Award Fund was established to honor the memory of Homer Higbee, who dedicated his professional life to international education exchange during the 25 years that he served in the Office of International Studies and Programs at Michigan State University.

The Homer Higbee International Education Award is designed to recognize four students, a U.S. and an international student at the undergraduate and graduate level who demonstrate the characteristics Homer Higbee represented. These include making significant contributions to the support of international awareness at Michigan State University through involvement in programs that promote cross-cultural understanding on campus and in the community. Financial need is not a criterion for this monetary award.

The award will be presented during the annual International Awards Ceremony on Wednesday, March 26, 2008, from 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. on the third floor of the Delia Koo International Academic Center, Michigan State University.

The completed nomination form should be submitted with:

1. A letter of nomination from MSU faculty or staff or members of the greater Lansing or Michigan community who are familiar with the contributions of the nominee. The nominator(s) should briefly describe the nominee's contributions to international communication, understanding, and cooperation. Give specific examples of how this student meets the award criteria including the setting, duration and impact of the candidate's service and activities.
2. The nominee's resume
