

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES AND PROGRAMS, MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

SPECIAL RECOGNITION AWARD

NOMINATIONS SOLICITATION

The Special Recognition Award is made to MSU faculty and staff who have contributed to internationalizing the campus and MSU programs globally, but who do not meet the criteria for other International Studies and Programs awards. Previous recipients of this award, for example, have included faculty and staff members recognized for leadership in the Third International Mathematics and Science Study, academic accomplishment and tireless efforts to increase internationalization through the medium of African dance, outstanding contributions to Global Festival, and for a central role in assisting international officers with technology changes related to the MSU Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS), and leadership of groups of students and health professionals on medical missions in Mexico.

The award is presented as warranted and is not necessarily given every year. When presented, the award is made during the annual International Awards Ceremony. The 2008 event is scheduled on Wednesday, March 26, 2008, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. on the third floor of the Delia Koo International Academic Center, Michigan State University.
