Joon S. Moon Distinguished International Alumni Award

Nomination Solicitation

The ISP Joon S. Moon Distinguished International Alumni Award recognizes distinguished achievements of eminent alumni who came to MSU as international students. It recognizes individuals for outstanding leadership and contributions in or to the international field or communities, organizations, companies, agencies, individuals, and/or governments internationally. Moreover, other criteria include demonstrated sustained commitment to international activities and public service.

The award is named after an MSU international alumnus and prominent Korean-American businessman. For a list of previous recipients of this award, visit isp.msu.edu/iac.

The completed nomination should include the Nomination Form and:

- » The nominator's statement. The nominator should describe the nominee's leadership and contributions to the international sphere in a one-three page attachment. Address the following: How the nominee has demonstrated distinguished achievement in his/her profession, leadership internationally, and sustained commitment to international activities; has contributed internationally to communities, organizations, agencies, individuals and/or government; and has been a credit to MSU through personal achievements and character.
- » The nominee's curriculum vitae or resume
- » A maximum of three letters of support
- » Optional: A maximum of three supportive documents (e.g., citations, newspaper articles, publications, or Web pages)
