

Japan Center for Michigan Universities

Semester Program Course Offerings

JCMU elective courses vary each year, each involving various aspects of Japanese culture. All elective courses are taught in English. The standard course, Japanese Culture & Society is offered each year and may be repeated for credit. Other courses are facilitated by JCMU Visiting Scholars, Shiga University, University of Shiga Prefecture, and distance learning. Independent study options are also available.

Courses Offered during Spring (Winter) Semester 2010

- Intensive Japanese Language [10 credits] (four levels, from beginning to advanced)
- Japanese Culture & Society [4 credits] - Resident Director
- Japanese Popular Culture [3 credits] - Shiga University
- Japanese Cinema [3 credits] - Preston Houser, Baika Women's College, Osaka Japan
- International Comparative Business Dimensions [3 credits] - Dr. David Leopard, Eastern Michigan University

Courses Offered During Fall Semester 2010

- Intensive Japanese Language [10 credits] (four levels, from beginning to advanced)
- Intercultural Communication and Technology [3 credits] - Dr. Douglass Scott, Waseda University
- Japanese Economics & Business [3 credits] - Shiga University
- Cultural Manifestations of Japanese Religions [3 credits] - University of Shiga Prefecture
- Japanese Culture and Society [4 credits] - TBA

Courses Offered during Spring (Winter) Semester 2011

- Intensive Japanese Language [10 credits] (four levels, from beginning to advanced)
- Japanese Culture & Society [4 credits] - Resident Director
- Japanese Popular Culture [3 credits] - Shiga University
- Japanese Cinema [3 credits] - Preston Houser, Baika Women's College, Osaka Japan
- Visiting Scholar Course [3 - 4 credits] - TBA

For more information on the JCMU elective courses, please visit the academics section of the JCMU website or contact the JCMU Program Office. All course offerings are subject to change.

<http://www.isp.msu.edu/JCMU>