

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Charles and Marjorie Gliozzo Dissertation Research Scholarship

APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 1st

Description

This scholarship was endowed by Dr. Charles and Mrs. Marjorie Gliozzo whose passion for and commitment to international education is unparalleled. Charles (Chuck) Gliozzo, Professor Emeritus of History and Director Emeritus of the Office of Overseas Study (precursor to the Office of Study Abroad), has a distinguished career at Michigan State University (MSU). Professor Gliozzo served as a Fulbright Scholar to France in 1962 and Germany in 1982. He also served in a leadership capacity within NAFSA: Association of International Educators, Council on International Educational Exchange and Phi Beta Delta, an honor society which highlights the accomplishments of students in international education. For her part, Marjorie Gliozzo, who was educated at Columbia University and National Autonomous University, taught Spanish at high schools in Buffalo, New York and East Lansing. Mrs. Gliozzo also served as an English Language teacher to MSU spouses in the Haslett School District for eighteen years.
