Outstanding Service to Education Abroad

The MSU Award for Outstanding Service to Education Abroad is given annually to recognize MSU faculty members and academic staff who give their time, energy, and creativity to the development and implementation of education abroad programs that support MSU's commitment to providing students with high quality international education opportunities.

Eligibility Requirements

Nominees for the Education Abroad award must be:

- » Demonstrated sustained commitment to education abroad.
- » Provided consistently excellent service in one or more of these areas:
 - » advising for education abroad.
 - » preparation of students for education abroad.
 - » teaching on one or more education abroad program(s).
 - » development and/or maintenance of one or more education abroad program(s).
 - » overall attention to high quality programming, including attention to academic, intercultural, health and safety concerns on site.
 - » support of education abroad programs in general at the department, college or university level.

This award was established in 2003 to increase the visibility of MSU faculty and staff who provide high quality programs and services to our students. Recipients have included education abroad program directors, and staff from the Office of Financial Aid, the Registrar's Office, and the Career Services Network.
